2. Adopt Rules of Order for County Board Approval: Motion by Beck and second by Jones to adopt the Montgomery County Rules of the County Board as presented. Young stated he would recommend moving Animal Control and EPA under the Roads and Bridges Committee to spread out the duties among all the committees. He said he thinks Animal Control should be under the Roads and Bridges Committee because Miles was overseeing them when they were under the Infrastructure Committee. He also said their facility is close to the Highway Department, which would be convenient for meetings. Young said the reason he believes EPA should be under the Roads and Bridges Committee is because most of the trash is along the roads. Hughes said he spoke with the Animal Control Officer Emily Gerl multiple times over the last week, and most of the issues they discussed have been personnel related. Hughes said he also dealt with animal control issues when he was chairman of the Safety and Elections committee. Beck said the Rules of Order Committee members and State's Attorney Affrunti both felt animal control should go under the Personnel Committee due to the Personnel Issues. State's Attorney Affrunti agreed and said animal control would be best suited for the Personnel Committee. He said they have the animal control services are not a concern, but the issues being brought to the committee have been personnel issues. Beck said the Rules Committee spent a lot of time discussing the assignments and deciding which committees to oversee their services. Miles said he spoke with Animal Control Officer Gerl recently also, and she expressed a desire to remain under his committee. Miles also stated he did not know how animal control got moved in the first place because it was most recently under the Infrastructure Committee, which consisted of Buildings and Grounds and Roads and Bridges. Young asked if he could make a motion related only to those two committee assignments. Affrunti responded they have to vote on the motion presented first. He stated if board members are not in favor of the proposed committee assignments, they should vote no on the motion to approve the rules as presented. ROLL CALL VOTE, Voting YES: Beck, Hughes, Jones, Murzynski, Ritchie and Whitworth. Voting NO: Beason, Bergen, Donaldson, Folkerts, Loucks, Miles, Sneed and Young. Motion failed by a vote of 8- NO, 6-YES.

2. Approve Purchase of TrueRoll Proactive Homestead Monitoring Software Approval: Laurent reported the Finance Committee has recommended purchasing the TrueRoll Proactive Homestead Monitoring Software to help find exemptions and clean up other data in the SOA office system. She stated funds to purchase the software will come from the GIS budget utilizing multiple funds. Laurent said she believes it will be a great asset to the county. Bergen stated he objects to the second part because the ordinance does not say simulcast system, but rather communications system. Ritchie said the ordinance was passed with a quote attached to it from GTSI for $345,000. Affrunti stated if the 911 board does not want to move forward with the simulcast project attached to the initial ordinance, they will need to reapply for the changed project so they are treated like other bodies/entities/offices. Loucks stated the Finance and Budget Committee discussed letting the ETSB have the $90,000 requested for the revised project and the county receiving the leftover money to put back into the pot. Donaldson asked if the Finance and Budget Committee made a recommendation at their meeting. Ritchie said they did not. Loucks said they did. Ritchie said they did not because the agenda for the Finance and Budget Committee specifically listed simulcast system, and the new project is not a simulcast system. Bergen stated the 911 board voted 5-2 to not move forward with the simulcast system. He also said he does not consider the GTSI document attached to Ordinance 2022-18 as a quote. He said the 911 board asked GTSI multiple times for additional information and when they did not receive it, the board voted the project down. Ritchie said the Finance and Budget Committee will need to discuss the policy for resubmitting project requests for ARPA funding at their next meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: None

SCHEDULE CHANGES: None

APPOINTMENTS: Motion by Beck and second by Jones to appoint Michael Broaddus to the Raymond Community Fire Protection District Board to finish a vacated term expiring in May 2023. All in favor, motion carried.

PUBLIC COMMENTS: Nokomis-Witt Area Ambulance Board member Dave Schweizer began the public comment portion of the meeting. He stated he had questions he would like to have answered with regards to ambulance billing and the ARPA funding. He asked who came up with the idea of a 40-60 split with regards to non-ARPA matching funds and why that idea was approved. He also asked if the County had errors and omissions insurance on the Ambulance Billing office, because former County Ambulance Billing office employee Mona Lewis declared herself the administrator for Medicare almost a year after the NWAAS had removed themselves from county billing.

County resident Chad Compton addressed the board next about a cannabis campground site that recently located near his residence. He distributed handouts showing a Beacon map of the campground's location and Airbnb information on the campground, which has been named "Best Buds 420." He said the campground is located on a five-acre parcel owned by a Florida resident, but the individual managing the site will be overseeing the campground. Compton stated the campground is very near their yard and home, and he is worried about potential unlawful trespassing onto his and the surrounding residents' properties, among other concerns. Compton stated while they are not considering selling their property right now, he did not believe they could sell it even if they wanted to because of the location of the campground. He said he is asking for the board's help because the business is supposed to open on April 19th, and they could be grandfathered in if any laws or ordinances are approved at a later time.

Other members of the public in attendance spoke about the carbon sequestration project proposed for Montgomery County. Audubon Township landowner Kurt Johnson stated they have a group fighting hard against the project, and they believe it is dying a slow death. He urged the County Board to sign a petition to intervene with the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC), much like Sangamon and McDonough counties have already done. He said another step the board can take to prevent this project from taking place is to pass a moratorium. He stated he has heard the County cannot do anything to stop the project, but he said there is a means by which the moratorium can be imposed.

Audubon Township landowner Trevor Braye stated the pipeline is set to run within 50 feet of his house. He said he read the proposed lease and it is very one-sided. He said the County is being offered $250,000 per injection well per year over a 30-year period while some landowners are being offered $3,000 per year. He stated there is no way this area is prepared in case of an event like a pipeline eruption similar to the event in Mississippi. He said the money being offered to the county is a bribe, and they should decline it like other counties have done.

Nokomis landowner Theresa Stevens stated her grandparents came here from Italy with nothing, and farming in the area now under consideration has been their family's livelihood. She asked county board members if they can look at the people in the audience at tonight's meeting and say their opinions don't matter. She stated lives are more important than the almighty dollar.

Audubon Township landowner Sabrina Jones stated she spoke with a large majority of township leaders in the county, and she has not spoken to any township yet who supports the CO2 project. She questioned State's Attorney Affrunti about his use of his cell phone during the meeting, and Affrunti responded he was using it to be in contact with a Sangamon County representative about the issue.

Nokomis landowner Cynthia Crowe asked if the CO2 Ad Hoc Committee meetings will be open to the public. Donaldson replied affirmatively.

Rural Hillsboro landowner Bill Schroeder asked if there would be agendas posted for those meetings. Donaldson stated meetings have not been scheduled yet, but agendas will be posted when they have been scheduled.

Nokomis and Witt Township landowner Andrew Bertolino stated Navigator has never built a CO2 pipeline before, and asked County Board members if they would want this site near them.

Audubon Township resident Greg Archibald stated they have a map of those in the Audubon Township area who have signed leases and those who have refused to sign leases, and they understand 84% haven't signed leases, and 16% have signed leases. Archibald said of those 16% who have signed leases, most of them want out of their contracts.

Fillmore Consolidated Township resident Karyl Dressen asked board members to contact state legislators to support proposed bills which could stop carbon sequestration projects and help protect landowners against eminent domain concerns and provide proper setback limitations within future projects.

PAY BILLS AND PAYROLL: Motion by Hughes and second by Ritchie to pay all approved bills and Payroll. All in favor, motion carried.

ADJOURN: The next regular full board meeting will be on Tuesday, April 11th, 2023 at 5:30 p.m. in the County Board Room, Hillsboro, Illinois. Motion by Whitworth and second by Ritchie to adjourn the Full Board Meeting. All in favor, motion carried.
